

Rules for Registration into the Capacity Booking System of MND GS Germany GmbH

Registration into our booking system (customer zone) is simple using the steps described below.

The registration is a prerequisite for obtaining access into the booking system (customer zone) where you can successfully book your required storage capacity together with relevant rates.

1. Open and fill-in the attached Registration Form (hereinafter also referred to as “RF”) which is located on our website under “Downloads/Documents”.
2. The registration is free of charge. Your personal data will be used exclusively for the registration purposes and for your activation in the booking zone. It will not be disclosed to any third party.
3. Please fill-in required identification details in the registration form. All mandatory fields in the registration form have to be filled-in. It will not be possible to submit the RF with missing information. Non-mandatory fields have blue background.
4. By filling-in and submitting the RF you represent that you are interested in obtaining access into the booking zone, that you are familiar with and consent to the General Commercial Terms and Conditions of MND GSG, specimen contracts, and the conditions for proving your financial eligibility. The General Terms and Conditions and the specimen contract are available in the “Downloads/Documents” section. The conditions for proving your financial eligibility form an integral part (attachment) of the registration form.
5. Submit the RF by clicking on “Submit” button. You will immediately receive a confirmation of successful RF submission.
6. Please send the proof of your financial eligibility to our contact e-mail address or to our postal address. Both the postal address and the contact e-mail are available on the “Contacts” tab of this website.
7. MND GSG reserves the right to check the financial eligibility of each applicant and to reject the registration in case of any problem. The verification process may take up to 5 business days from the financial eligibility proof delivery to MND GSG.
8. MND GSG reserves the right to reject the registration whenever it finds any untrue or misleading information in the registration form during the verification process.
9. Registration confirmation will be sent to your delivery address or to your contact e-mail address within 7 business days from the financial eligibility proof delivery.
10. If your registration is successful, you will receive the login/password for access to the booking system (customer zone) of our company.
